

The Village Partnership Application

Saturday, June 18, 2022

Barnet Park ~ 11-7pm

Dear Village Partnership Applicant:

Join the City of Spartanburg for this unique and educational event as we celebrate the African American experience since the end of slavery in 1865. Expect food, fellowship and the opportunity to learn via inspirational performances and more!

This event will attract people of all ages, cultures and backgrounds from across the Upstate of South Carolina, North Carolina and Georgia alike. These visitors will come to learn from and be inspired by cultural artists, inspirational dance, songs and other mediums used to highlight a brighter future for African Americans and all people.

About Juneteenth: Juneteenth is the oldest known celebration commemorating the end of slavery in the United States. This event will educate the Spartanburg community about African American history and celebrate the incredible achievement of a people who have shed the bonds of slavery and progressed to the greatest halls of power all within the span of 152 years. Through educational exhibits and inspiring artists, along with food and fellowship, this event will provide a platform to celebrate a rich history while teaching and inspiring the entire community to continue to strive forward for an even brighter future.
